Border Realities

Crises, Resistances, Silences – Perspectives from the Border and Borderlanders

Interdisciplinary Online Lecture Series 2023/2024

Considering the prevailing inflation and commonplace usage of the term "crisis," the lecture series discusses in 2023-2024 situated and critical explorations of crisis from the perspectives of border scholars in geography, political sciences, cultural studies and anthropology. The international speakers will examine the intricate relationship between crisis and borders emphasizing how crises, and discourses about crisis, shape and complexify multiple border realities.
